

I agree fully with RM-10867 as proposed by the FCC. This action will open the amateur radio service to many talented and willing new radio operators who simply are not interested in morse code as a means of communication. This proposal will breathe much needed "new life" into the Amateur Radio bands! Tim Moore N5YCN